Cookie Policy

Last Updated: 30 September 2026

1. Introduction

This Cookie Policy explains how Glowia Lights ("Glowia Lights", "we", "us", or "our") uses cookies and similar technologies when you visit our website.

2. What Are Cookies?

Cookies are small text files that may be stored on your computer, mobile phone, tablet, or other device when you visit a website. Similar technologies may also be used to store or access information on your device.

3. Why We Use Cookies

Glowia Lights may use cookies and similar technologies to make the website function correctly, maintain security, remember preferences, improve performance, understand website traffic, analyse visitor interactions, measure content effectiveness, and support marketing activities where applicable.

4. Types of Cookies We May Use

4.1 Strictly Necessary Cookies

These cookies support essential website functionality such as security, form functionality, session management, cookie preference management, and basic website operation. They may not require consent where a relevant legal exemption applies.

4.2 Functional or Preference Cookies

These cookies may remember choices such as language, display preferences, and user interface settings. Where consent is required, these cookies will only be used after appropriate consent.

4.3 Analytics Cookies

Analytics cookies may help us understand website traffic, pages viewed, time spent, traffic sources, device and browser information, interactions, and navigation patterns. Where consent is legally required, we will request consent before using them.

4.4 Marketing and Advertising Cookies

Where implemented, marketing cookies may be used to measure campaigns, understand interactions, provide relevant advertising, measure conversions, and understand user journeys. Where applicable, we will obtain the required consent before using these technologies.

4.5 Third-Party Cookies

Some cookies may be placed by third-party services integrated into our website, including analytics, advertising, social media, embedded content, security, and website functionality providers. Third-party providers may process information according to their own privacy policies.

5. Cookie Consent

Where applicable, Glowia Lights will ask for consent before using non-essential cookies or similar technologies that require consent. Our consent mechanism may allow you to accept all optional cookies, reject optional cookies, select categories, or change preferences later.

6. Managing Your Cookie Preferences

You can manage your cookie preferences through the cookie consent mechanism provided on our website, where available. You may also manage or delete cookies through your web browser. Disabling certain cookies may affect parts of the website.

7. Cookie Categories and Examples

Category	Purpose	Consent
Strictly Necessary	Website operation, security and essential functionality	May be exempt where permitted
Functional / Preferences	Remembering preferences and user settings	Consent where required
Analytics	Understanding website traffic and visitor behaviour	Consent where required
Marketing	Advertising, campaign measurement and tracking	Consent where required
Third Party	Services such as embedded content, analytics or ads	Consent where required

Important: The exact cookie names, providers, purposes, and expiry periods should be updated based on the actual cookies installed on the Glowia Lights website.

8. How Long Cookies Remain on Your Device

Session Cookies

These cookies are generally deleted when you close your browser.

Persistent Cookies

These cookies remain on your device for a defined period or until you delete them. The duration depends on their purpose and provider.

9. Changes to Cookie Use

We may introduce new website functionality or third-party services. This may result in changes to cookies or similar technologies. Where changes require updated information or renewed consent, we will update our cookie information and consent mechanism as appropriate.

10. Privacy and Cookies

Information collected through cookies may, in certain circumstances, constitute personal information or may be combined with other information relating to an individual. Our use of personal information is also governed by our Privacy Policy.

11. Your Rights

Depending on applicable law, you may have rights regarding personal information processed through cookies and similar technologies. You may also be able to withdraw or change consent for optional cookies.
